

EXAMPLE EXAMINATION

Philosophy:

1. Our conscience tells us something is wrong:

- a. Because we feel uneasy.
- b. Because other people don't like it.
- c. Because of the consequences.

d. When we do it.

2. "Legal" is a synonym of:

- a. Good.
- b. Fair.
- c. Juridical.
- d. Natural.

3. Which expression is not related to Nietzsche?:

- a. The will to power.
- b. Superman.
- c. Man is social by nature.
- d. Morality raises life to a higher level.

Language:

1. Which of the following sentences is grammatically incorrect?:

- a. Lucharemos porque todo salga bien.
- b. No sé el por qué de su actitud.
- c. Si no vienes no iremos ninguno.
- d. ¡Conque esas tenemos!

2. In the sentence, “My friend Laura is a painter,” what is the syntactical function of the word “painter”?:

- a. Predicative expression.
- b. Circumstantial adverb.
- c. Direct object.
- d. Predicate.

3. A synonym of “unprecedented” is:

- a. Intolerable.
- b. Indestructible.
- c. Atrocious.
- d. Unheard of.

Literature:

1. Composite verse has:

- a. Two hemistichs.
- b. A caesura.
- c. Twelve or more syllables.
- d. All of the above answers are correct.

2. One of the lyrical innovations of the Spanish Renaissance is:

- a. The use of the eleven-syllable line.
- b. The discontinuation of the use of clichés such as Beatus ille.
- c. The theme of romantic love.
- d. None of the above.

3. What is another name for natural rhyme in Medieval Spanish literature?:

- a. Feminine rhyme.
- b. Masculine rhyme.
- c. Total rhyme.
- d. Homogeneous rhyme.

